G: Hiya.

S: Hiya. It's me. It's Stacey.

G: I know.

S: How's it going? What's it like?

G: I've literally just sat down. I said goodbye to you 35 minutes ago.

S: Have you met anyone yet? What are they like? Are there girls everywhere? They'll be all over you.

G: Don't be silly.

S: It's just new territory for me, babes.

G: I've been at work for 11 minutes. I promise I'll call you at lunch. OK?

S: OK. I love you.

G: I love you too.

MD: Gavin. Huw Davies. Welcome to Cardiff.

G: Mr. Davies. Good to see you again.

MD: Oh please, call me Huw. Now, is this your first office of your own?

G: Yeah, it is.

MD: Excellent news! I tell you what, call maintenance and get them to stick this on your door. It's a big moment.

G: Aw, cheers. Thanks!

MD: Now, I'll take you round in a bit, show you what's what and who's who. Did you get your welcome pack?

G: Er ... yeah. I think so.

MD: Excellent news. Get that. Could be important. Phone system: real easy. Boom, boom, and then Line 1. Go.

G: Er ... Gavin Shipman.

P: Hello my little prince.

G: Hiya. Look, um ...

P: How's it going, darling? Are people being nice to you?

G: It's my mother. I'm just with my new boss.

P: What's he like?

G: Look, I'll call you at lunch or after work when it's not on the company's time.

P: All right. Well call me on the ...

G: Sorry about that.

MD: Hey listen ... everyone has to take a personal call once in a while. And when it's family, it's family. Now, your fire regs and what have you. Very simple. In the event of a fire, my motto is ...

G: Run for your life?

MD: No. Go to your nearest assembly point. Right. You're on your own with this one. Go for it.

G: Hello, Gavin Shipman.

GD: Are you all right, mate?

G: It's my dad. Er, Dad, I'm actually with my boss.

GD: Oop. Apologies. Say no more. Call me later.

G: Cheers. See ya.

I'm so sorry about that. It's just, you know with the move down here and that.

MD: Listen, I completely understand.

G: Gavin Shipman.

Sm: Gavilah!

G: Right. Ready when you are.

MD: Excellent news. OK. Let's show you around.

G: I'm just gonna leave that there.

MD: And the surprising thing about Terry is, although he doesn't look it, he is in fact, our nominated First Aider.

OH: Huw!

MD: Ah! Now here's somebody you've not met yet. Owain Hughes. Owain heads up the website.

G: Hi. Nice to meet you. Gavin Shipman.

OH: Owain Hughes. Hey, er, we have a little seven-a-side on a Thursday if you fancy joining us.

G: Oh right, yeah. I'd like that.

OH: I mean it's nothing too serious, you know, at the end of the day it's touch rugby but some of the guys ...

G: Oh sorry. I thought you meant football.

OH: No, we play rugby.

MD: It's rugby, it is.

MV: Gavin! Gavin! They won't let me in! I wanted to surprise you! Got you a packed lunch.

G: Bryn, I don't need a ... I'm sorry. This is my uncle ... in-law.

B: I'll see you, Gav.

OH: Bye, Bryn.

MD: See you.

OW: Mr Shipman? A parcel for you, just arrived.

G: Oh, thanks.

MD: Open it, then!

G: It's from my wife.
